

TROY

Troy has many, MANY talents - as a corporate MC, he places a high emphasis on research to ensure his approach is always professional and entertaining – but his talents run deeper than that.

Troy is an award winning actor, speaker, comedian and voice over artist. He is well-known in the industry for his quick wit and his ability to change quickly through a wide variety of hilarious characterisations.

Audiences immediately warm to Troy's inclusive brand of comedy and he is in hot demand around the country, for his ability to blend serious corporate messages with good humour and heart.

Troy was a top-rating breakfast radio host – until, in his own words “he got better!” and decided to leave 4am starts behind – and share his unique talents with the world.

He has a sound understanding of modern business and is able to create original and memorable characters to support any material.

Troy is brilliant, warm, funny, highly intelligent and is incredibly focused on delivering exceptional events.

He is a world-class performer and leaves audiences feeling inspired and cared for. He has a bevy of extremely happy clients including: Disney, Austereo, AMP, Channel 10, ANZ (the list goes on...).

Whether it's a celebration or a serious business meeting – Troy will guarantee your event is remembered in a positive light for years to come.

Troy Swindells-Grose PhD... (*pretty humourous dude!) and one of this country's most extraordinary talents.
